

I sell clothes I don't wear anymore

I donate clothes I don't wear anymore

I am willing to pay more for sustainable clothes

I don't support fast fashion

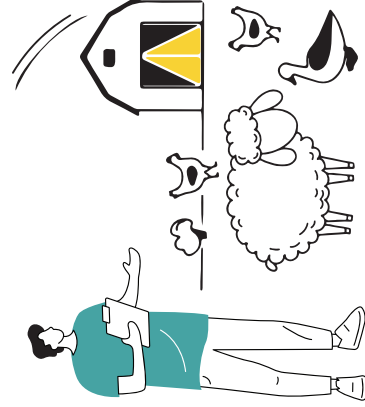

I buy clothes from thrift stores

I try to recognize greenwashing in fashion

I wear ethically produced fashion garments

I try to avoid microplastic pollution

I buy clothes according to necessity, not trends

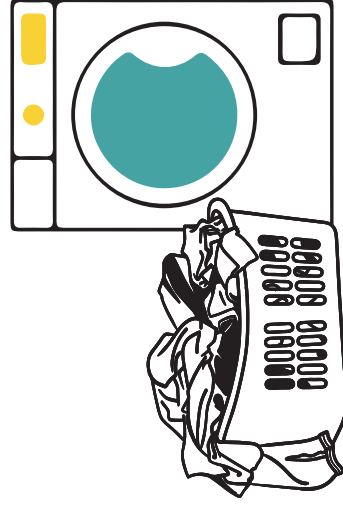

I use sustainable bags for shopping

I support candidates and politicians who deal with environmental topics

I turn on my washing machine only when I need to

I look at the label information inside my garments

I wear all the clothes in my wardrobe

I don't buy clothes made from synthetic materials

I participate in clothing SWAPs

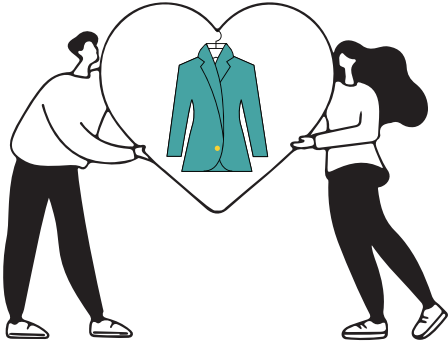

I pay attention to which materials my clothes are made of

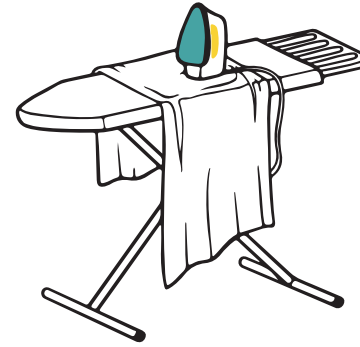

I talk about fast fashion's impact on climate change with friends and family

I take good care of my clothes

If I need to iron my clothes, I know how to do it properly

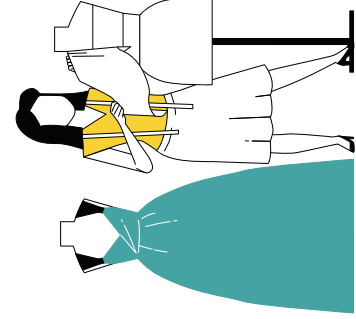

I repair my clothes

I am learning how to repair clothes myself

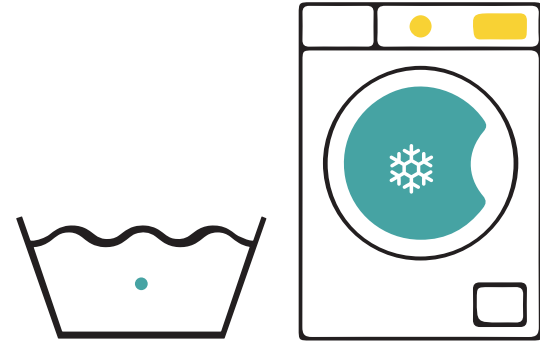

I remake my clothes and wear them again

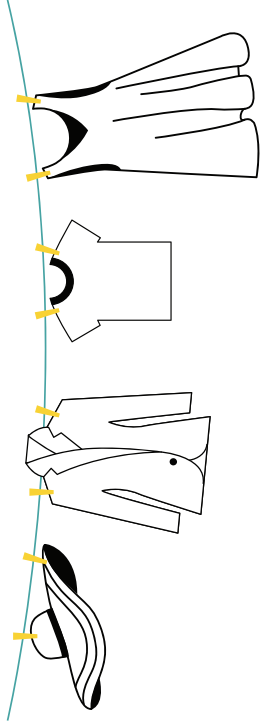

I look for garments that are made from recycled materials

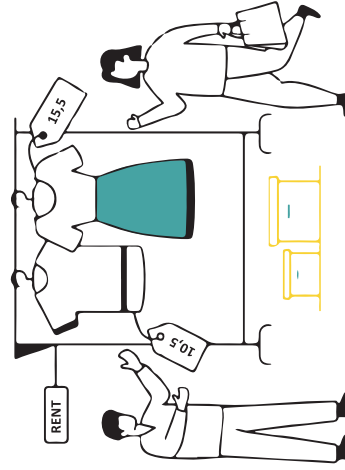

I wash clothes on a colder setting

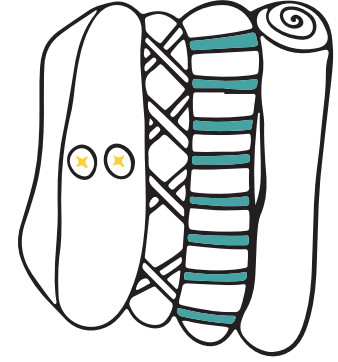

I do not tumble dry my clothes

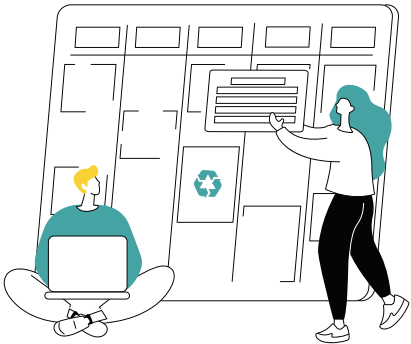

I rent clothes

I fold my knits instead of using hangers

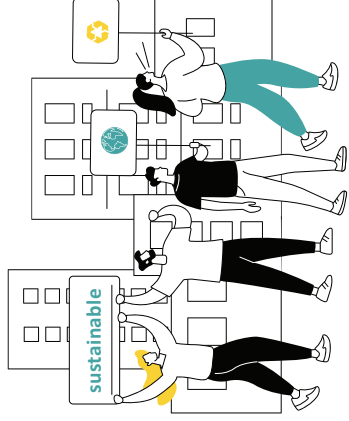

I take part in the work and initiatives of an organization supporting sustainable fashion

I consider clothes as an investment

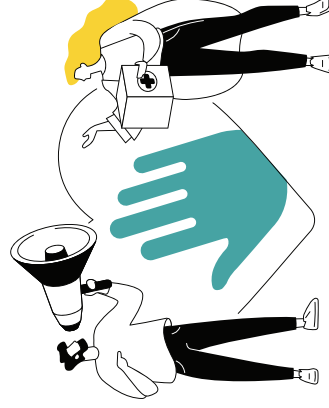

I take part in raising awareness about sustainable fashion

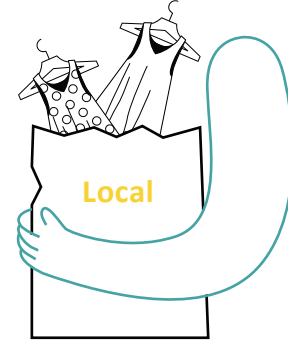

I buy less clothes but make sure they are of higher quality

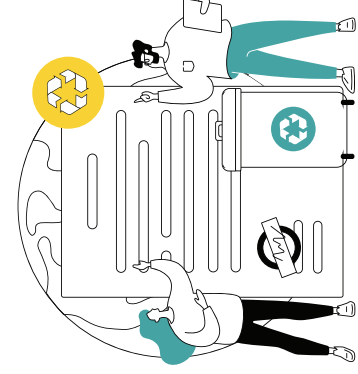

I raise my voice against the abuse of fast fashion industry workers

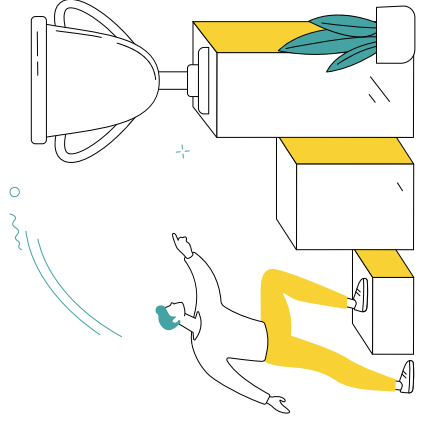

I purchase from local fashion brands

I look for ways how to recycle my clothes

ITS ME

IT COULD BE ME

I AM NOT THERE YET
